

PageTraffic Launches Google Penalty Recovery Service

Summary: PageTraffic is launching Google recovery services for its clients to set their websites free from the clutches of Google Panda and Penguin algorithm.

PageTraffic is broadening its service base with the introduction of Google Recovery Services. The company has been delivering impeccable web solutions for over a decade and happens to be one of the oldest SEO companies in India, this makes it reliable and worthy of strong market reputation it holds.

Detailing about the latest service, Navneet Kaushal, CEO PageTraffic said, "In the past few years, many websites have fallen prey to Google's Penguin and Panda ranking algorithm and have almost ceased to appear on search. The web site's ranking, visibility and its traffic have been hit badly, which can be restored only through Google Recovery Services. If you happen to be one of the sufferers, PageTraffic will be delighted to help you out of this problem."

Google has been warning and penalizing websites for low quality back links, over optimization of anchor texts and low quality content. If one ignores these warnings, the website might be trashed. PageTraffic's recovery service helps website owners in regaining their position. PageTraffic technicians audit the whole website thoroughly and rectify issues related to content, back links, meta tags and anchor texts. Check out the services here: Penalty Recovery Service.

"PageTraffic's Google recovery service program is not only effective but affordable too. Our expert technicians carefully scrutinize all the issues that may have led to your website's downfall and then provide detailed solutions to fix the problem. However, additional efforts need to be done to regain the lost traffic and improve ranking. This is possible only by uploading the original content to your website, using Google compliant SEO techniques, removing bad backlinks, decreasing over optimization," added Navneet Kaushal

Webmasters have been on toes since 2011, when Google first altered its ranking algorithm. If you happen to be one of the sufferers, PageTraffic is the best SEO Company for a consultation followed by recovery program.
